

About Sibusiso Moyo: Sibusiso Busi Moyo is the Zimbabwean Minister of Foreign Affairs and International Trade, a position he has held since November 2017. Before becoming Minister of Foreign Affairs, Foreign Minister Moyo served as a major general in the Zimbabwean National Army. He is also a member of the Zimbabwe African National Union – Patriotic Front (ZANU-PF) politburo.

Foreign Minister Moyo was born in Mberengwa District in 1961, and joined the liberation movement in 1976. He received military training in Zambia before being named a Captain in the Zimbabwean National Army in 1980. From there, he rose through the ranks to Major General and was promoted to Lieutenant General upon his retirement from the armed services in 2017.

During his military service, Foreign Minister Moyo held special appointments as a member of the Agriculture Task Force and National Economic Development Priority Programme (NEDPP), Deputy Chief of Staff to the United Nations Mission in Somalia, Commandant of the Zimbabwean Military Academy, and Chairman of the National Defence University Council. He also chaired the Zimbabwean Defense Forces (ZDF) Military Strategic Estimate and Concept of the Defence Vision 2020.

Foreign Minister Moyo received PhD in International Relations from the University of Zimbabwe, a master's in Business Administration from Zimbabwe Open University, and a master's in international Relations from the University of Zimbabwe. He also completed coursework in the Senior International Defense Management Program at the Naval Postgraduate School in California. He is married to Judge Loice Matanda Moyo, the Chair of the Zimbabwe Anticorruption Commission (ZACC) and has two children.

DISSEMINATED BY MERCURY PUBLIC AFFAIRS, LLC, A REGISTERED FOREIGN AGENT, ON BEHALF OF THE MINISTRY OF FOREIGN AFFAIRS AND INTERNATIONAL TRADE OF ZIMBABWE. MORE INFORMATION IS ON FILE WITH THE DEPT. OF JUSTICE, WASHINGTON, DC